

BIOGRAPHY OF DR GAUTAM GOSWAMI

Dr. Gautam Goswami is Director (Scientist - F) in Technology Information, Forecasting and Assessment Council (TIFAC), Dept of Science & Technology, Govt. of India. Currently, he is heading the most prestigious programme of TIFAC “Technology Vision 2035”. Dr. Goswami is also heading two important climate change projects “Technology Needs Assessment” and “Global Technology Watch Group” project. He conducted panel discussions on technology aspects of Climate Change in COP 21, COP 22, COP 23 and COP 24 in Paris, Morocco, Bonn and Poland respectively. Prior to this, Dr. Goswami was coordinating Technology Vision 2020 Agriculture demonstration projects in different parts of the country where he worked closely with Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, Former Hon’ble President of India. Dr. Goswami gives training to private and public sector on Technology Foresight and its application in decision making.

Dr. Goswami has done Ph.D. in Agricultural Chemistry and Soil Science from University of Kolkata. Dr. Goswami has written a chapter in “Clay Research” published in Australia. Before joining TIFAC, Dr. Goswami was lecturer in University of Kolkata.